tainment will be applied to the Terrell lecture on the 21st.

Rev. A. R. Martin, of Tuesday writes us that he has had 40 converts and has added 46 new members to his church during the present conference year. He also adds the Conservator to his family which proves him to be a wise man.

Our thanks are due the Students' Lecture Bureau for patronage of our printery for their Terrell Lecture on the 21st. We urge all of our friends to attend. Prices, reserved seats 35 cents; all other seats, 25 cents. No reductions for children.

Sedalia Fountain of the True Reformers initiated seven candidates on the 12th. Among the number was presiding elder J D Barksdale. After the initiation the six degree lectures were given to 17 new members. Chief Braden and wife are doing nicely here with their work.

Prof. William Jacobs, principal of the Richmond school, contributes an ably prepared article on "Not in School" for the thought-ful consideration of our readers.

We urge you to read it again and to make a personal application of the suggestions made by the writer. Every reasonable step should be taken to keep our boys and girls in school.

Died, Robert Neal, at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Blain, 138 West Morgan street, this city, Feb. 9th. The funeral was held from Burn's Chapel. Rev. E. D. Burns of Malta Bend, officiating. The remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery. One sister, two nieces and three nephews survive him. Other relatives and a wife, Mrs. Stella Neale, have our deepest sympathy.

A Compliment From the Supreme Chancellor.

The Supreme Chancellor S W Starks, in a recent communication to our office avails himself of the opportunity to state "Please accept my congratulation upon the excellent paper you are making the Conservator." For such an important compliment from one so high in our Pythian rank, we feel exceedingly grateful.

If you associate with "trash" you may prepare to brush away the dust, when you prepare to leave.
